Marvellous goodies for March

To enter, SMS the word Berry and your name to 42282. SMSs cost R1.50 and free SMSs do not apply. The competition closes on 20 March. Winners will be notified telephonically and will need to claim their prize at AngelBerry in Menlyn Park.

Guilt-free indulgence

There's a new kid on the froyo block... UK-based AngelBerry is now available in the capital city. AngelBerry's froyo is low in carbs and 100% natural (they also have a Stevia range) making it a great, guilt-free option. Flavours include classics like vanilla and Belgian chocolate, and wickedly indulgent ones like strawberry cheesecake and crème brûlée. The menu also features delicious smoothies, parfaits and freshly-made American-style pancakes. AngelBerry is situated in Menlyn Park. For more info, like their Facebook page, AngelBerry SA. *WIN: Five readers can each win a complimentary AngelBerry froyo.

Moroccan vibe

Add bold splashes of vibrant colour to your home with these beautifully designed scatter cushions. The lively Moroccan print will brighten up any bedroom or living room. These cushions are available at www.re-fined.com, which features a host of other goodies from top SA designers.

Summer vino

Soak up the last of summer with a deliciously indulgent, wine-infused lunch. For those lazy weekend lunches, Zonnebloem's lively Sauvignon Blanc is at the top of our wish list. This fresh, zesty wine tingles with notes of passion fruit and green fig and ends in a cool, clean finish that will have you salivating for the next sip. It pairs beautifully with a classic Caesar salad – a must-have on any menu. *Check out foodie Jules Mercer's mouth-watering Caesar salad recipe on pretoria.getitonline.co.za.
